ON Saturday last, about Nine in the Morning, His Majesty, attended by the Lords of the Regency, the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, and a great many of the Nobility, foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, went on Horseback from Herrenhausen to a Plain near this Place, where the three Troops of Horse Guards, consisting of 180 Men, Officers included, passed in Review before His Majesty: They performed the Exercise both on Horseback and on Foot, and fired in Platoons. His Majesty was pleased to express his entire Satisfaction with their Performance and fine Appearance. M. Knigge, who was dispatched hither by his most Serene Highness the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, to compliment the King upon his safe Arrival in his German Dominions, returned last Sunday to his Court, well satisfied with his Reception here. M. Wederkopp, Grand Maitre to her most Serene Highness the Dutchess Dowager of Wolfenbuttel, who was sent hither on the Part of her said Highness upon the like Occasion, returned back at the same Time. The same Day in the Morning Count Kinsky, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperour to the Court of Great Britain, set out from hence for Dresden in his way to Prague. Baron Sparre, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sweden to the Court of Great Britain, arrived here the same Day from England; as did likewise Count Ossorio, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia. This Morning at Eight His Majesty went from Herrenhausen in a Chaise to the Burgers Common, about two English Miles from this Place, where he reviewed the Regiment of Foot Guards, consisting of 1400 Men, Officers included, commanded by Colonel Ilton. They marched in Companies till they came to the Tent where his Majesty was, and filed off Man by Man, and then resumed their former Ground. They performed their manual Exercise, and went through the Evolutions and Firings; they afterwards marched by his Majesty in Companies. This Exercise continued from about Nine till Twelve, when his Majesty returned to Herrenhausen very well satisfied with it. He was saluted by Eight Pieces of Cannon both at his coming and going.
